

Human Resource Management

Mumbai University Course Syllabus

Module 1: HRM Foundations and Strategic HRM

- HRM definition, functions, scope, and objectives
- Difference between Personnel Management and HRM
- Strategic HRM and the role of HR in business strategy

Module 2: HR Planning and Job Analysis

- Human Resource Planning (HRP) process and forecasting
- Job Analysis: Job Description (JD) and Job Specification (JS)
- Job design, enlargement, enrichment, and rotation

Module 3: Recruitment, Selection & Induction

- Internal and external sources of recruitment
- Selection process, types of interviews, and tests
- Induction, orientation, and social integration of new employees

Module 4: Training & Management Development

- Identifying training needs (TNA)
- On-the-job and off-the-job training methods
- Evaluating training effectiveness, management development programs

Module 5: Performance Appraisal & Compensation Planning

- Performance appraisal objectives and traditional vs. modern methods (MBO, 360-degree)
- Appraisal bias and performance feedback
- Job evaluation, wage structures, fringe benefits, and incentive systems

Module 6: Industrial Relations & Employee Welfare

- Industrial dispute causes, prevention, and settlement machinery
- Trade unions role, collective bargaining process
- Employee safety, health, and welfare statutory provisions